youths in the North-Eastern States of India in the recent past, against the non-tribals;

(b) whether it is a fact that the Chief Ministers of some of the North-Eastern States have been expressing their concern about the growth of resentment among the tribals against the non-tribal residents in these States, in general, and in the resumption of secessionist attitude by the agitating youth forces of the States, in particular;

(c) whether Government have drawn any comprehensive plans to tackle the situation; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. M. SAYEED): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) to (d) Many Chief Ministers have expressed concern about the rising extremist and secessionist tendencies amongst the youth. There is a rise in the agitational activities of many parochial groups against the non-tribals. While protesting against the issue of photo identity cards in Meghalaya, the Khasi Students Union had targetted the non-tribal residents of Shillong during April-June 1994 and indulged in violent activities. Some non-tribals were reported to have been assaulted and some of their business establishments and houses damaged. Additional units of the Central Para-Military Forces were rushed in and the State Govt. advised to deal firmly with the situation. Some of the miscreants were arrested. The Union Home Minister and the Minister of State (Internal Security) visited Shillong separately to take stock of the situation and reviewed the law and order arrangements. An improvement in the situation is reported. Some reports alleging harassment of non-tribal residents were received from Mizoram in 1993. The State Govt. was advised to take strict action to protect the life and property of non-tribals. There have been no further reports of this kind in the recent past. There are no such reports from the other North Eastern States. A Committee of Central Ministers has also been appointed to consider the problems of tribal communities in the North East.
